

HOG MARKET STEADY

Light Saturday Run and Dull Trade.

TOPS REMAIN AT $3.27 1-2

Cattle Market Steady With Average Supply.

The Wichita hog market yesterday was quiet as steady, with a light run in and the quality generally common, with now and then a slight sprinkling of medium fair. It was a dull day for the most part the few hogs appearing coming straggling in few and far between. Only about half the number of hogs received the Saturday previous came in yesterday, and not a quarter of the receipts on Friday. The wagon trade was indifferent all day, only a barely nominal line from this branch arriving, and those in small lots and scattering. The first deal to weigh up was a car load on the early opening, and this was a car of heavy fair grade and selling strong, almost before the reports from other sources had been confirmed. From this there were no more car sales until late in the afternoon, the top of $3.27, better put on by late last two loads to be weighed up. The weight was good, the average of the four cars being 36 pounds, 9 pounds heavier than the weight of the day previous, and a pounds better than last week Saturday. There was a good firm demand both shipping and local packing, and more hogs by considerable would have found a warm welcome had they arrived. Especially so could they have been a few shades finer stock. As it was all the offerings were promptly snapped up by the buyers, and reports of possible later arrivals held the various interests at the yards until late yesterday was about like Saturdays used to be, not only at this point but at all the western receiving yards. For some time back the Saturday business has shown little or no falling off in receipts, and it has come to be expected as good a day all around as any of the week, even in strength and tone of the market. The day before, however, was the heaviest day of the week in point of receipts and it was to be expected that the following day would show a falling off. The week shows some falling off in receipts, but it being election week more than explains the decrease, since Tuesday was practically nothing and the day before the same. The market has been in strength and tone of the week, and the demand at all times active and eager. There is good prospect now for a good week this coming week.

The cattle market yesterday was steady with only a fair average run, good for Saturday, and the quality just fair. Some good prices were paid for mixed lots, stockers of fair weight being in the majority. There was no halting in the inquiry for fat butcher stock, and stock cattle also remained in good demand. Besides the sales listed below, there were a head of calves sold by the beef, bringing $2.00 per head. This bunch was driven in late the night before from the country by C. E. Blake. This was considered a good sale. There were also four cars of well fed prime butcher stock shipped from the south by Deck Parsons, billed to the east and yarded for feed in transit. All sale stock was promptly taken and at the best prices available.

SHIPPERS AND NOTES.

Ed. Wedline of Augusta was the first shipper to weigh up on the opening. His car was of heavy hogs of fair grade and sold well.

Joe Scott of Peck was on the market with a car of mixed hogs which sold toward the close.

Whitmer Bros., of Conway Springs, were shippers of a car of hogs of medium weight and good enough to take the top of the day.

One more car of heavy hogs of fair grade came in late from the Oklahoma country and sold at private sale at a strong price.

The heavy doing the hauling yesterday were as follows: Rock Island, 5; Missouri Pacific, 1; and Frisco 1.

The daily comparisons were as follows: For yesterday, top, $3.27; bulk, $3.27; average weight, 36; receipts, 1,371.

For Friday, top, $3.27; bulk, $3.27; average weight, 36; receipts, 1,371.

For the same day last week, top, $3.27; bulk, $3.27; average weight, 36; receipts, 1,371.

Other markets were as follows: Chicago expected 2,000 hogs and received 1,000, with 2,000 left over. The market advanced 5 cents. There were on Friday 27,000 hogs received, and the estimate for Monday is 27,000. At Kansas City the receipts were 7,000, against 7,000 on Friday, and the market was quoted as strong to 4 cents higher. St. Louis received 3,000 hogs, against 3,000 on Friday, and the market was given as generally stronger. Provisions were dull and steady throughout the day, with hard and firm quotations on the close steady with the day before.

The Dold shipments yesterday were five cars of straight contract stuff consigned to the east and south, one car from the jobbing division, and two cars sold. It has been a very good week at the Dold plant, the shipments being heavy, with increased demand for all products, but especially strong in the jobbing department, which is increasing in business every week. Fresh meats and products of the sausage department are increasing daily in sales, taking the force to keep up with orders.

The shipments out of hogs bought on this market for eastern order were two cars, all bought during the day.

J. D. Harrison, chief clerk at the Dold offices, left yesterday for a several weeks business trip through the south. As he has been in the business for a long time, his departure is a loss to the plant, the trip will do Mr. Harrison great good personally, as his close application to duty all summer has rendered him somewhat run down.

There is a growing sentiment in this city expressed frequently of late among all classes of business men, relative to this city adopting a food inspection ordinance, such as is in effect in many cities, and a few in Kansas. Besides the revenue resulting therefrom, the better and purer food products, as well as the great commercial benefit to the city from protecting the public health, are the leading reasons for its adoption. Most of the leading staples sent out of the city plant bear a lithographed placard bearing the statement: "Made in Wichita." Thus the town is advertised throughout the land. Again, one individual ruin about the works is always to purchase supplies which can be procured here, right from Wichita farms. It is equally regrettable that questionable products from outside the city should be required to bear a license tax as in Topeka and elsewhere. All meats and all live animals are rigidly inspected here and residents here can not get tainted meats from the Dold establishment. The largest meat and little army of men employed are important and should be protected against such outside competition which is unfair, dishonest sometimes, and apt to be injurious to the city. This matter of late has been agitated by others, prominent business men of the city, and will sooner or later become a law.

For the past week the receipts were 4,000, the average weight 36. For the week previous the receipts were 3,000, and the average weight 37. The top price for the week was $3.40 on Monday; the low point $3.27, Friday and Saturday.

The review of the week by days is as follows: Monday, top, $3.40; bulk, $3.30; average weight, 36; receipts, 75; Tuesday, top, $3.37; bulk, $3.27; average weight, 36; receipts, 283; Wednesday, top, $3.30; bulk, $3.23; average weight, 36; receipts, 63; Thursday, top, $3.35; bulk, $3.23; average weight, 36; receipts, 33; Friday, top, $3.27; bulk, $3.27; average weight, 36; receipts, 1,371; Saturday, top, $3.27; bulk, $3.27; average weight, 36; receipts, 32.

Some time ago the Dold Packing company asked for submitted designs for a catchy advertisement for their celebrated Yorkshire Farm sausage. Several hundred professional and expert ad writers competed, and the committee of award have about decided to give the prize to a young man from Missouri, who produced this advertisement in a picture in the center of the card which represents a young barrow sitting upright on his haunches, fore paws hanging down, and holding a stick of them box, facing the 5-pound package in which the article is packed, the box lettered over with the trade mark "Yorkshire Farm Sausage." Underneath the picture appears the following advertisement: "I'm a young pig from Yorkshire Farm. I've lost my power and can do no harm." Paraphrase and Moore was the style of a new firm at the yards yesterday with stock from Oklahoma.

All hogs and cattle on sale yesterday were cleaned up early, and the business closed. There was no drag to the market when there was stock in which to deal and all stuff offered sold. With no election or other distracting influences, this week will show an increased trade in volume of receipts and strength of the market.

Chicago Times-Herald: There has been some change of heart in the provision pit of late. This cattle which ran the rib deal in October is not preaching his doctrine any more. Even the English crowd, which was long and for 40 days, is supposed to be evened up. It looks a little as if the packers had gotten together somewhat closer on the hog question and as if there were to be no bulling of product until the hog is nearer to the 3c mark. He is about a half cent over that now. The product is about on the basis of 2 1/2 to 3c.

Omaha Journal: Said a cattle salesman this morning: "The cattle market at all points is in a queer condition. A man don't know where he is going to land. One day they want one kind and the next another and the result is you can hardly tell a customer what his stock is worth but in my opinion this condition cannot last. They must get worried soon if supplies hold down to their present moderate proportion."

WINE OF CARDUI

STRENGTH FOR WEAK WOMEN.

Ida, Fulton Co., Ill., Jan. 23.

I want to say a few words in praise of Wine of Cardui. For a long time I could not ride anywhere without it bringing on my menses. After taking some Wine of Cardui I can do anything without any bad effects at all.

Mrs. LAURA GEER.

Wine of Cardui

Some women have to handle themselves as though they were made of glass. The least exertion or strain starts up a pain or aggravates a weakness. This isn't natural. There is no reason why a healthy woman should not possess almost as much strength as a man. Some of them possess more. Plenty of riding and outdoor exercise ought to be a distinct benefit to a woman. It certainly ought not to be a detriment. If weakness or "female complaints" are present, the first step to a restoration of health is a visit to the drug store. Here the sufferer can get a large bottle of Wine of Cardui for $1.00. This should be taken according to directions. From the first dose a gradual but sure strengthening process will begin. Before the first bottle is gone, there will be a wonderful change for the better. It cures in an altogether natural way by purifying and strengthening the organs involved. It cures without abhorrent local examinations. Each sufferer is her own doctor.

Druggists Sell Large Bottles for $1.00.
